Some Adversities

- Professors, who cannot keep up the rhythm of weekly lectures and evaluations online.
- Between a 20 to a 30% of our participants leave the courses.
- Availability of Staff and Administration at the Institute's facilities with good command of Spanish.
- Our site has been hacked.
- The Statement about nontransferable credits: General Rules and Regulations 5.8 "courses given in the framework of e-learning are not transferable to any degree program at the University"

Admission and Assessment

- Admission Policy: Multiple choice questions for weekly evaluations (randomized data base).
- Final Essay by each course.
- Attendance control (student must sign in weekly and finish the homework on time).
- Material is available only for a week.
- The Experience with Skype Exit Exam

ACQUIN Guidelines

THE SELF-DOCUMENTATION BY THE HEI

The introduction of an accreditation procedure requires the compilation of a comprehensive self-documentation.

The cover sheet of the self-documentation needs to have the following information:

- Provider of the study programme (HEI, department/faculty)
- · Title of the study programme
- Degree
- · Date/planned date of introduction
- · Location(s) of the study programme
- Subject field (multiple classifications possible)
- Regular study duration
- Beginning of studies (winter semester/summer semester)
- Frequency of the offered programme (annually/semi-annually)
- · Contact person for study programme information

- Number of ECTS credits
- Modules/course/academic schedule (annex)
- Number of students to be admitted
- Tuition fees
- · Target group/addressees
- Type of studies (full-time/extra-occupational/distance learning/part-time)
- Admission requirements
- Master's programmes: more practice-oriented/more research-oriented
- Master's programmes: consecutive/non-consecutive/further educational
